

Abdirahman Mohamed Abdullahi

Ministry of Health and Human Services, Federal Government of Somalia

Abdirahman Mohamed Abdullahi is a public health surveillance officer at the Ministry of Health and Human Services, Federal Government of Somalia. He is also a consultant on the Polio Eradication Surge Capacity Support Program with the Task Force for Global Health and CDC in Mogadishu, Somalia. Abdullahi is a public and environmental health graduate with a master's in healthcare management and pursuing an MPH - epidemiology and disease control from Mount Kenya University.