

Dr. Ezzuddin Okmi

Head of the Communicable Respiratory Diseases Prevention and Control Directorate, Saudi Public Health Authority (PHA)

Dr. Ezzuddin Okmi is the Head of the Communicable Respiratory Diseases Prevention and Control Directorate at the Saudi Public Health Authority (PHA) and also serves as the Vice President of the WHO-MERS-Collaboration Center. He holds a Preventive Medicine Board from the Joint Program of Community and Preventive Medicine, and an MBBS Degree from Jazan University, KSA. Dr. Okmi is a consultant of preventive and public health.

In 2020, Dr. Ezzuddin was one of the experts assigned by PHA to develop Covid-19 prevention protocols. He also participated in establishing the WHO-MERS-CoV collaboration center. Dr. Okmi has published many research articles and is currently working on three research projects in PHA.