

Dr. Sinan Ghazi Mahdi

Manager of Schistosomiasis and Enteric Helminthiasis, CDC-Baghdad, Iraq

Dr. Sinan Ghazi Mahdi is the Manager of Schistosomiasis and Enteric Helminthiasis at the CDC-Baghdad in Iraq. She has been a Fellow of the Iraqi Council for Medical Specialization, Community Medicine Branch since 2010 and an alumni of the Singapore Cooperation Program since 2012. Dr. Mahdi is also a member of various national committees, including the Higher Committee for Zoonotic Diseases, the Supreme Committee for Cholera, and the Higher Committee for Disease Vector Control Strategy. She serves as the focal person for the NTD program and has been involved in the training program for graduate students of the Community Medicine and Applied Epidemiology branch since 2012. Dr. Mahdi received her Bachelor of Medicine and General Surgery from the University of Baghdad in 1990-1991 and is a Certified TOT license holder from the Training and Development Center at the Ministry of Health since 2021.